Litt: Appreciations by Some of His Friends and Fellowworkers, and a List of His Works Balliol has been largely a Scotch College, not so much on account of its first Scotch founder as of two later benefactors Warner and Snell. But Jesus represented this idea most fully. It has been emphatically the college of Wales. Whether this was from the first so de jure is doubtful, but it was so de facto, and the fact was emphasized later by the well-known Meyrick Foundation. From the first the Principal, though not all the Fellows, would appear to have been usually a Welshman. Her venerable halls, And gray quadrangles have been, as Lewis Morris sang, linking himself in verse with Henry Vaughan the Silurist, The tranquil refuge now as then, Where our dear country glories in her own, Apart from alien men. Of this little national enclave Sir John Rhys was in his day the ideal monarch. It is not for me to attempt to speak in detail...
