

Viva Journalism The Triumph of Print in the Media Revolution

By John C. Merrill

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 200 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. In a previous book, John Merrill and Ralph Lowenstein were the first journalism academics in America to predict, correctly, that newspapers and magazines as we know them would soon disappear, to be replaced by digitized products. Drawing on their long experience in journalism and journalism education, they lay out in this book their observations, suggestions and predictions - not only for the American media, but for the education of future journalists. They believe many media moguls have abused their fiduciary responsibility to maintain the financial strength and credibility of the press. They believe few university presidents understand the important relationship between journalism education and political democracy. They describe the chain of neglect that has led to press insolvency, staff unemployment and J-school misdirection. They believe print journalism will be the strongest form of journalism well into the future - although the print will not be on paper. It will be on what the authors call an s-slate, silicon slate, and they believe that every individual from kindergartner to senior citizen will have a personal s-slate in the future to retrieve and read books, magazines and newspapers. Merrill and...
