It s a major part of life. It s what drives us in almost everything from a necessity perspective. In fact, a recent Zogby poll shows that a majority of those surveyed feel that accountability is something negative that happens to them - usually when things go wrong, rather than something they utilize to ensure success. But what about from a positive perspective? In almost everything we are accountable to an outside force. It s a negative influence for good. We drive the speed limit for fear of getting a ticket. We pay our taxes on time for fear of the government hauling us away. We keep our weight down and in shape when we aren t in a relationship for fear of not attracting a mate. We at least put on the appearance of work at our job for fear of being fired. The list goes on and on and on. fill in the blanks, write your own list. Even so, we do just enough to get by. We push the speed limit by 5-10 mph because that s the most we can push it and not get stopped. We pay our taxes on time though 41 of us pay within the last 30 days and 27 in the last 15 days. We may keep our weight down when pursuing the catch, but we put on the freshmen 15 after we re caught. You can become 10 times more effective then you are now - in anything. Today. This book will not only show you how to use Positive Accountability to get almost anything done, it will walk with...
