"How would you like to be a racket? A stranger for a week, an heir for a week, then down with the sick and a stranger again."
Inspector, worn Journal Horowitz Magazine, plans to write her will – but before the papers can be drawn up, she is dead from an overdose of pills. All eyes are on Carey Silence, a penniless orphan who was recently made Horowitz's ward. Suspicion focuses evidence, Carey is accused and her trial is prepared. So begins a classic golden age mystery with many suspects and none. Who was the 'racket' referred to? Who was it Horowitz really intended to set out of her will? And most importantly – who murdered her?
This novel, from 1965, tells the story of one of the most dramatic trials in detective fiction – the trial of Carey Silence. The new edition features an introduction by crime fiction historian Celia Froom.
