REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE WAR DEPARTMENT TO THE FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL CONGRESS OF COLOMBIA, 1823--13. REPORT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE WAR DEPARTMENT. Gentlemkn, When, for the first time, I comply with the pleasing duty of laying, before congress, the military state of the republic, I must be permitted to express, with all the warmth of my feelings, the very great part which I take in the general joy with which the heart of every Colombian this day overflows. Placed at the head of the departments of war and the navy by the kindness of the head of the government, I am the organ of the military body of the republic, to present to the first constitutional congress, those vows as pure as they are sincere, with which the army celebrates its happy installation. The Colombian army, alike worthy of admiration by the heroism of its valour and its constancy, as by its love of liberty, and entire devotion to our excellent institutions, feels itself this day well recompenced for its unheard of exertions, and for the precious blood which it has lavished in thirteen years of battles, on considering the tranquil and beneficent empire of the law, solidly established under the lustre of its arms. If the army, in order to banish oppression, has known how to encounter, up to the present time, every kind of danger, to raise itself above all the reverses of war, and to support the most...
